Administrator Tracy Condon announced that the July 12th owner seminar put on by Board staff was successful and well-attended by approximately twenty-four property owners and managers who received information and assistance about calculating the annual general adjustment increases. Ms. Condon reminded the public that registration fees are due by August 1st and, if not paid on time, owners cannot pass through the fees to tenants for the full year. Additionally, penalties on unpaid balances will accrue on a monthly basis. Ms. Condon announced that the Board received a $400,000 settlement for outstanding registration fee penalties from an owner who withdrew properties under the Ellis Act and subsequently offered newly constructed units for rent within five years. She thanked current and former staff attorneys, Hakhamanesh Mortezaie and Keith Kresge, and General Counsel Michaelyn Jones for their efforts in this matter. Ms. Condon noted the settlement will help close the deficit gap in the current year's operating budget.
